

Spring Is Not Dead

4

Alfred Perceval Graves

Alexander Mackenzie

Allegro moderato (

)  $\text{♩} = 80$

Voice

Piano

f

p

p

Snow on the earth; though

7

calando

a tempo

p

March is well nigh o - ver, Ice on the flood; Fin - gers of frost where late the haw - thorn

a tempo

calando

14

calando

a tempo

p

accel poco a poco

co - ver bur - geoned with bud. Yet in the drift the pa - tient prim - rose

a tempo

p accel poco a poco

20

mf f

hid - ing, Yet in the stream the glitt-ering trout - let glid - ing,

25

p sempre accel. mf

Yet from the root the sap still up - ward spring-ing, Yet o - ver -

30

rit. passionato a tempo f

-head one faith-ful sky - lark sing - ing "Spring is not — dead!"

a tempo f

35

Spring is not— dead, is not— dead!

rit. 3 a tempo

3 3 a tempo 3 3 f 3 mf

40

Brows fringed with

p

p f p p

46

snow, the fur-rowed brows of sor-row, Cheekspale with care: Pul-ses of pain that

calando p

calando p

53

mf calando p accel.

throbb from night till mor-row; Hearts of des-pair! Oh, yet take com-fort, still your

59

mf

joy — ap-proach-es, Dark is the hour that on the dawn — en-

64

f p accel.

-croach - es, Ap - pril's own smile shall yet suc - - ceed — your

68

sigh - ing A - pril's own voice set eve-ry song bird sempré rit.

72

a tempo
appassionato

ff

cry - ing, "Spring is not__ dead," "Spring is not__

a tempo

76

rit. a tempo

dead, is not__ dead!"

f