

The Maid of Elsinore

8

Harold Boulton (also series editor)

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry

Allegretto con moto (

) $\text{♩} = 154$

Voice

Piano

p

p

A tear-ful

6

boy king O - laf stood 'Mid his war-riors grim and 10

grey, As the good ship bore him o - ver the flood, From his first fond love a - dim.

dim.

14

p

- way. His wist-ful eyes stillsought the shore,

18

f

Buttheroughearls laugh'd that O - din's seed The wood-land flow'r shouldstoop to 22

p

heed, The Maid of El - si - nore.

dolce p p

27

mf

The moun-tain pinegrows strong and

mf

32

sure, By north-ern tem - pestssway'd, The frail hare -

36

-bell will bloom se-cure In the shel-ter'd for-est glade; Thus O-laf'sarm wax'd

41

great in war, Till dis-tant isles his prow-ess knew, And fair - er

46

bloom'd and ev - er true The Maid of El - si -

51

-nore. 'Twas ten long years of storm and 55

fight By ma-ny a fo-reign main, Ere great king O-laf's

59

con-quer-ing might Came sail-ing home a-gain; The Vik-ingships were rang'd a-shore, Theroughearlslaugh'd in scorn no more, Heplac'd her handswith-in his

63

68

cresc.
animato

own, Up-on her brow the queen-ly crown, O'er fjord and field the

animato
cresc. molto

74

rit.

glad bells peal'd, For the Maid, the Maid of El - si -

rit.

79

-nore.